

NZART HQ INFOLINE SPECIAL ISSUE # 78

2024 NZART Conference Updates

This years conference was definitely one to remember, with the Airforce Musuem making for a wonderful venue. For the Saturday dinner, we were treated to fantastic entertainment from a witty host and multiple performances throughout the night from the 'Starlets'.

Well done Christchurch branch and conference committee!

It appears our president Daniel Vandenberg ZL2DRV has been hacked. Please do not reply to any emails from president15811@gmail.com.

It was disappointing to see a multitude of branches - who were not present at conference - had not reached out for a proxy to be arranged. If no one from your branch is attending as a delegate, it is important that you email HQ to request a proxy and submit your votes for any remits. This process is in place to make sure we have enough members represented for a quorum, and to ensure your voices are heard.

Call Book

Council has decided that, at present, there will be no physical copy of the Call Book available for purchase in the foreseeable future. The Call Book will remain online on the NZART website. A copy of the Callbook containing full addresses will be available in a 'members only' area on the website once the feature is implemented.

Mark Gooding ZL2UFI was presented with a certificate of appreciation for his contribution as Break-In editor between from 2015 - 2021

Break-In

NZART Council are considering moving from physical publication of Break-In magazine to digital once a 'members only' area has been implemented on the website
